COUNCIL DECIDES TO APPEAL CASE

Both Branches Favor Taking Annexation Suit to Supreme Court.

JOINT SESSION IS HELD

Recommendations of Attorneys That Appeal be Taken Passes Without Serious Opposition. Cost $1,000.

By a unanimous vote of the Board of Aldermen and a vote of 12 to 2 in the Common Council the city fathers of Alexandria, at meetings held last night agreed to appeal the annexation case, which was recently decided against the City of Alexandria, to the Supreme Court of Appeals.

The action of both bodies followed a joint session when acting as a committee on the whole, the members of Council recommended the appeal.

The joint session was called to order by President F. F. Marbury who stated the object of the meeting. He asked the clerk to read the following message from Mayor Thomas A. Fisher:

To the Honarable City Council of Alexandria, Va.

Gentlemen:

"In a sweeping decision rendered this morning at the Court House in Alexandria County, Judge Bennett T. Gordon decided the suit of Alexandria City for additional territory, and dismissed the petition, and in consequence Alexandria will be unable to extend its boundaries."

The foregoing is the first paragraph in the first column on the first page of the Alexandria Gazette, of Saturday, January 18th, 1913, and in these words was announced a piece of news that brought considerable disappointment to a large majority of our fellow citizens.

This miscarriage of the wishes of the City Council, as proposed in the ordinance for the annexation of certain lands on our southern, western, and northern boundaries, is accentuated by reason of the fact that the honorable court failed to find even so much as an acre of ground which we think equity should have accorded us.

I consider it my duty as Mayor, to call your attention officially to our present failure at annexation, in order that you may consider the question of an appeal, should you think it the part of wisdom to proceed further in the case.

I desire to make this message the medium of submitting my own views on some matters closely related with the annexation proceedings as they have a practical as well as a sentimental aspect.

During the presentation of evidence and the arguments of counsel, I was present each day, and one could not fail to be impressed with the tinge of an unfriendly feeling upon the part of some who testified for the counties, and the pompous manner of others; emphasizing that they did not need and desired no fostering care upon our part, and wished to be let alone to manage their own affairs in their own way—this air of independence was perhaps natural, and would be commendable if so favors had ever been asked of us. Judge Gordon in referring to the objections upon the part of the residents of the outlying territory, said for one reason, they, the residents, would derive from it no benefits they do not now enjoy in the way of lights, water, police, schools, road-ways, and, etc., etc. "Is is not a truth that the gas is furnished by the city from its own gas works? Is not the electric plant located in our city and conducts business unedr afranchise granted by the City Council. Have not applications been made by residents of both counties for admission of their children to our public schools? Every citizen of Alexandria is well informed as to how and from whom these benefits come, with which the honorable court says the residents findthemselves satisfied.

These conveniences are things which none of us desire to deprive our county neighbors, and only a mean spirit would envy.

When it comes to police protection and fire department service, that the counties have either, is news to most of us. I propose to have a voice and a word in this matter which concerns the police and fire service which has always been freely and promptly furnished. I wish to say my actions will be guided by no revengeful reprisal, but only as an admonition to those who have pompously declined our efforts to make them a part of us, that they themselves should assume the burdens, dangers expense and responsibility of protecting themselves from lawlessness and danger of conflagrations.

When they inaugurate ways and means to at least minimize possible dangers and troubles on these lines—and it will necessarily enlist their energies and cost them money—then the demands of humanity and neighborly feeling would invite, if not require our assistance and appliances.

Had Judge Gordon conceded us a fair portion of the territory we desired to annex, a discussion, or if you please the consideration of this question of police assistance and fire department service would be unnecessary. The issue having been settled largely through the opposition of the residents of the adjacent counties we may well pause and calmly and discreetly consider our duty to ourselves, our obligations to our neighbors. This suggests an intelligent and discriminating consideration of precedent and custom and laws. The police power of arrest one mile beyond our corporate limits is permission not a power that we arr bound to observe, because not obligatory, and it is none the less true that the time has come when the counties should have their own officers, rather than call on us day an dnight for police help. Water service has been installed in both counties, with fire plugs or hydrants at convenient places, yet no move has been made by those most interested to procure any fire fighting apparatus or organize any fire companies. The sending of our fire engines beyond the corporation line has been upon orders of different persons at different times, sometimes the Mayor—the Chief of the Fire Department and the fire wardens, and perhaps by others. It may be a question even if the Mayor has the authority to give such orders, however, at times he must act, and then at once. That he can prohibit or prevent the taking of the fire apparatus of the fiire department of the city I have no doubt. An act of the General Assembly of Virginia in relation to the government of cities and towns approved May 330, 1903 has a provision as follows:

"The Council of any city or town "may, in their discretion, authorize "or require the fire department there "of to render aid in cases of fire oc- "curring beyond their limits, and "may prescribe the conditions on "which such aid may be rendered."

No ordinance has passed the City Council fully covering the conditions and under which this aid should be rendered. I do not think that our people at the present time are over enthusiastic in assisting our friends of the counties as outlined in the Act quoted.

If they are, they possess a spirit of charity and good will which was lacking on the part of many who were volunteer witnesses for the counties. I confess to a feeling of disappointment, which at first was one of resentment toward the anti-annexationist, yet reflection and a desire to do injustice to no one has lessened that feeling. This however, will not deter me from insisting that if the residents of our borders desire our help, that they must no longer delay a plan to help themselves. When they do this then we will naturally desire to become auxiliaries to anything that will be to their benefit.

President Marbury then invited Jno. M. Johnson and Corporation Attorney Samuel P. Fisher to address the members and Mr. Johnson discussed at length the proceedings before Judge Gordon and reviewed in detail the evidence which the city had presented. He pointed out many inconsistencies in the Nelson county judge's opinion and stated that he thought there was an excellent chance of the Supreme Court reversing his decision. He explained that the expense of the appeal would be in the neighborhood of $1,000 and this amount would be for printing the record and clerk expenses. No additional fee would be paid to the attorneys for the city.

SUPREME COURT TO DECIDE CASE

Authority of Police Justice in County to be Decided.

FINNEY OUT SALARY.

Disposition of Writ of Habeas Corpus Will Determine Constitutionality of Act of Legislature.

The constitutionality of the act of the legislature under which R. Gordon Finney, police justice of Alexandria county was appointed by Judge J. B. T. Thornton of the Circuit Court, will come before the Supreme Court of Appeals in Richmond tomorrow when they will be called upon to decide a writ of habeas corpus filed by W. B. Settle, of Alexandria county.

Mr. Finney served as police justice for seven months up to the first of last December and received no compensation for his services although under an act of the legislature he was entitled to a salary of $600 per annum. His salary was not paid by order of R. Lee Moore, state auditor of Virginia, who held that the act of Legislature was unconstitutional. The act provided for the appointment of trial judges in police cases in counties having over 300 population to the square mile and the State Auditor and attorney general contended the act was a discrimination against the counties which had less than that number of people to the square mile.

Believing there was no way in which he could secure pay for his services and not wishing to continue in office without compensation Mr. Finney resigned his position several weeks ago but upon the promise that the matter would be carried to the Supreme Court he agreed to withdraw his resignation.

The proceedings which will be heard tomorrow were therefore instituted. Mr Settle was fined by Justice Finney for contempt of court and refusing to pay the fine was ordered to be committed to jail.

The petition was drawn by Mr. Settle himself and the allegations of fact are certified to by a notary public. He is not represented by counsel, but, it is presumed, will be brought to Richmond to plead his own cause Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, which time the court has set for a hearing.

According to the petition, Settle appeared before R. Gordon Finney, a justice of the peace of Alexandria to represent a client charged with some trivial offense. Settle told the august court to its face that said court was not a duly constituted authority and had no right to try the case. The court resented the imputation upon its dignity as well as the allegations of its legality and promptly fined Mr. Settle $5.00. The lawyer refused to pay the fine, and Magistrate Finney slapped the lawyer in jail—or rather turned him over to the custody of an officer, which is all the same in Dutch.

In his petition Settle alleges that Magistrate Finney was appointed by a Circuit Court judge under section 108 and that his appointment is unconstitutional, illegal, etc., etc., and that he had no right to fine him for contempt of court because he was not a legal constituted court, and therefore couldn't put him in jail for the same reason.

He prays the highest court to restore his liberty.

Senator Elected.

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 24.—W. R. Webb was elected U. S. Senator for the short term, displacing Newell Saunders, republican, for the unexpired term of the late Robert Love Taylor.

He was fusion candidate and received 73 votes to 53 for M. T. Bryan.

Mrs. Margaret Zane Witcher, the first woman who ever delivered the electoral vote of a state to the Senate, performed that service for Utah today.

WHO LET THE CAT OUT OF THE BAG?

Claude R. Yates, formerly a member of Common Council from the First Ward, called at the Gazette Office this afternoon and asked that the Gazette make a correction of the statement that has been published to the effect that he had informed certain members of the City Council that he had resigned or was about to resign and had withheld this information from others. Mr. Yates made the following statement:

"I left Alexandria early in January on a trip and did not return until last night. On January 6th, while at Minneville, Va., I wrote my resignation which I addressed to D. R. Stansbury, clerk of the Council of Alexandria, and mailed same on January 7th. It was presented to Council on January 14th. I never discussed the matter with a member of Council or with anyone else and not even a member of my family knew that I intended resigning."

In view of Mh. Yates' statement the explanation made by Mr. Williams of the Second Ward when questioned by Mr. Birrell at the Council meeting on January 14th, that Mr. Yates had told him that he would resign is interesting.

If Mr. Yates is correct, how did the information leak out? Did the clerk of Common Council give out the information to a select few of Council and not to others?

Our knowledge of Mr. Stansbury's handling of Council's affairs for many years makes it improbable that he was guilty of such an act.

Did the president of Council, Mr. Brumback, secure the information from Mr. Stansbury and give it out to a few of his own partisans?

We prefer to believe that any man who fills the high position occupied by Mr. Brumback would not stoop to such petty politics.

Here is a splendid opportunity for Sherlock Holmes.

Who let the cat out of the bag?

COUNCIL CASE DELAYED.

Supreme Court Will Not Hear Quowarranto Proceedings Until March.

The Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia will close its January term tomorrow or at any rate at the conclusion of the hearing of case No. 58 on the docket and will not take up any new cases until the March term which commences on March 4th. This will mean the contest over a seat in City Council from the First Ward instituted by Robert S, Barrett against Urban S. Lambert will not be taken up until sometime in March. The case is No. 66 on the docket and it was expected that it would be disposed of at this sitting of the court. As will be remembered Mr. Barrett was awarded the seat by Judge Chichester, of Fredericksburg, but Mr. Lambert took an appeal to the Supreme Court.

Mass-Meeting Called For Purpose of Adding to Ranks—Some Disorder and Windows are Broken.

New York, Jan. 24.—The long threatened general strike of the hotel and restaurant waiters was called early today. Marching bodies of the waiters who have been on strike for several weeks, paraded past the principal hotels and called upon their fellows to walk out.

At the Victoria Hotel, Folies Bergere retaurant and Rectors, several hundred responded. In the other large hotels, and restaurants the men were prevailed to wait until the proprietors had a chance today to consider their grievances and try to bring about an adjustment.

The strike so far has not affected the service in any of the principal hotels, but the union leaders and I. W. W. organizers called mass-meetings today at which plans were discused to spread the strike Pictures were organized and posted and the proprietors immediately appealed to the police for permanent special guards.

Disorder followed the course of the parading. They asembled in front of the Hotel Knickerbocker and several windows were broken by bricks. The police chased the strikers up the street where they made another demonstration against the Hotel Astor. From there the marchers moved to the Hotel Belmont, where several more windows were broken.

Candidates who are becoming active in the aldermanic campaign in Chicago were warned yesterday by Health Commissioner George B. Dr. Young declared that the baby-kissing feature of the campaign should be strictly forbidden.

Walter Robinson shot and mortally wounded his 19-year-old bride and then killed himself this afternoon in his home in New York. The suicide left a letter, in which he said that his crime was prompted by jealousy, which had driven him out of his mind. Mrs. Robinson died two hours afterward. In the letter he accused William Hobson, a chauffeur in one of the city departments, of alienating the affections of his wife.

Seven persons are known to have been killed and nine injured when the three-story Odd Fellows Building at McKinney, Texas, occupied on the lower floor by a dry goods and men's furnishing establishment, collapsed late yesterday. A special sale was in progress at he Cheeves Brothers store when the building tumbled and a number of shoppers were said to have been in the store. Some of these are known to have escaped. Five dead had been removed from the wreckage at 7 o'clock, two others died shortly after they reached a hospital, and of the seven others injured three are seriously hurt. Fire broke out immediately after the building collapsed, but was extinguished within an hour. McKinney is a banking city of about 5,000 population.

After an illness of only five days, Mrs. Elizabeth Bates Doughty, wife of Dr. Howard Watehs Doughty, died at her home at Amherst, Mass., Wednesday afternoon of scarlet fever. Two weeks ago Mrs. Dought's two-year-old son, Odbert, was stricken with the disease, and although three trained nurses were in attendance they could not quiet him. He kept calling for his mother, and last Friday Mrs. Doughty could resist the pleadings of her little boy no longer. When the nurses had left the room for a moment she rushed to the bedside of her little boy to comfort him, as only a mother can. Mrs. Doughty was only with her child a few moments when the nurses returned and led her, sobbing, from the room. As a result of the few moments spent in trying to comfort her boy she contracted the disease.

What is believed to have been a climax to the freaky weather that has marked practically the whole of the winter season, broke over Annapolis, Md., yesterday afternoon in the shape of a squall. Between 3:30 and 4:00 o'clock there were several flashes of lighting, followed by a heavy shower of rain.

TURKISH ENVOYS ARE RECALLED

TO CARRY ON THE WAR

Ottoman Ambassadors at Vienna and St. Petersburg to be Courtmartialed—Anarchy in Country.

Constantinople, Jan. 24.—The new Turkish cabinet today decided to recall the Ottoman peace plenipotentiaries from London forthwith. This will preclude a resumption of peace negotiations and can be construed to mean only that the Young Turks are determined to carry on the war.

The first official act of the new cabinet, after recalling the London plenipotentiaries was to recall for court-martial the Turkish ambassadors at Vienna and St. Petersburg. These diplomats were accused of failing to maintain strong policies in behalf of their home government as against the allies.

Constantinople, Jan. 24.—Anarchy, stalking close behind revolution, was threatened throughout the Ottoman empire today. Street fighing prevailed all over the city following a night of continuous rioting and the hospitals rapidly were filling up with the seriously wounded.

The police made assemblance of attempting to keep order, and there were wholesale arrest throughout the night and today but the process was much like pouring water into a sieve. As soon as a prison would be filled with rioters a mob would storm the place and liberate them.

Enver Bey, held directly responsible for the killing of Nazim Pasha, has been made military commander of Constantinople on his demand by Sultan Mahammed V.

London, Jan. 24.—The London ambassadors of the Great Powers today were summoned to the Foreign Office by Sir Edward Grey, secretary of state for foriegn affairs. He told them that immediate and vigorous concerted action by the powers was imperative, if active hostilities involving Turkey, the Balkan states and possibly other nations were to be avoided.

JONES TO ANSWER TAFT.

Thinks the President Mistaken in Regard to the Phillipines.

Washington, Jan. 24.—Congressman William A. Jones, of the First district, will shortly reply to President Taft's New York speech, in which the latter assailed President-elect Wilson's attitude on the Philippine independence bill.

Mr. Jones will deliver his answer on the floor of the house. He is fortified with facts and figures, with which he says he can disprove the statements of the president that the Philippines are not a financial burden to the American people. Mr. Jones tried late yesterday afternoon to make reply to the president on the floor of the house when the military appropriations bill was up, but objection was made to his request for unanimous consent for permission to speak thirty minutes.

The provision in the bill calling for $500,000 appropriations for barracks in the Philippines was the subject upon which Mr. Jones intended to hinge his reply to the president.

Lynching Averted.

Leavesville, Miss., Jan. 24.—Only the courage of Sheriff Green, 24, saved Clarence Walton from lynching by an angry mob here today. Walton, charged with criminal assault on Miss Helen Turner, daughter of a prominent family at Tallahassee, Fla., was brought here for safe keeping. When Sheriff Green arrived with his prisoner the mob threatened to hang Walton to the nearest tree. The youthful officer, gun in hand, announced that he would have to be killed before Green was taken and he was allowed to jail his prisoner.

Officers Talbot and Bell brought Henry Buckner, colored, before the Police Court this morning to answer the charge of assaulting Annie Washington, colored, with a razor. She alleged she was conversing with her brother when Buckner suddenly loomed up and made such a hostile demonstration that she ran, closely followed by Buckner, who, she said, had an open razor in his hand. She managed to escape him and later complained to the police. Her evidence was substantiated by witnesses who came forward.

RETURNS TO WORK HOUSE

WOMAN AND SON ARRAIGNED ON CHARGES OF VAGRANCY AND TRESPASS.

A white woman named Lucy Miller was brought before the Police Court this morning to answer the charge of begging on the streets and drunkenness. Some time ago she was arraigned upon similar charges and sentence to serve 30 days in the workhouse, but upon promising to leave Alexandria and return to her relatives in Stafford county she was released before serving her term. Justice Caton ordered that she be returned to that institution to serve 30 days.

Robert Miller, her son, was next brought in. He was charged with drunkenness and trespass. According to the testimony of a resident of Cameron street Miller entered his premises yesterday afternoon and re-appeared after dark bearing a note which he alleged he had received from the mistress of the house, who is in Baltimore, directing that two roms be prepared for his accommodation. He also claimed to be a nephew of the lady. A brother of the mistress of the house suddenly appeared and put Miller to flight. He was later with his mother taken in custody by Sergeant Bettis, and Officers Kern, Garvey and Rawlett.

Miller denied all the allegations made against him, and alleged he was in Washington at the hour he was charged with entering the house.

DOMESTIC RUGS

A perfection of patterning and rich and harmonious color blending has been obtained by the reliable makers of Domestic Rugs, so that each season it is found imperative to discontinue a number of designs for those of newer creation and more in keeping with established standard of decoration.

Rugs included in a clearance of this kind lack nothing in quality or merit; many of them have been in remarkable demand, but, being of old design, must submit to the custom now prevailing.

We always secure a number of these discontinued patterns, but do not accept any and all kinds; we make our selections according to desirability from the number to be closed out, and secure some really fine colorings and designs at the lowest prices.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

RYAN'S VIRGINIA ESTATE.

...ire's Splendid 10,000-Acre Place at Oak Ridge.

The manor house itself stands upon ...h old farm site guarded by gigantic ...k trees. The farm is two miles from ...r. Ryan's birthplace, Lovingston. The house was built in 1800; it was ...quare and severe. To this was added ... two-story colonnade entrance and ... wing at each side, improving the ...roportions and resulting in a fine ...ype of Southern residence.

As the train stops at he estate's sta... tion, Oak Ridge, the visitor finds the ...ntrance marked by wrought iron ...gates. Here are the postoffice and express office, and from this quaint ...building of stone painted white, with ...he sloping green roof which is a fea...ture of all the buildings on the place, ...t is but a short walk to the general ...office building. About this the business ...of the farm centres, for not a product ...of this farm goes out, not an article of ...supply is brought in, that is not ac...counted for in the farm books. Here ...is the office of the general supervisor, ...who has each department of the farm ...under a submanager.

The first structures seen from the ...office are the lately constructed dairy ...buildings, where are housed the 100-...pure-bred Guernseys, headed by the ...champion bull miable of the Isle. Near ...this is the power house, where the ...100-horsepower engine furnishes elec...tric current for the entire place, which ...is lighted and worked by electricity.

On Bellevue Hill, which commands ...an unbroken view of the Blue Ridge ...for many miles ,a huge reservoir ...holding 250,000 gallons of water has ...been built and it supplies water for ...the entire place. A grist mill run by ...electric power furnishes all the flour ...used on the place and in the enarby ...community. Its capacity is 20 bar... a day. But the flavor of Old Do...minion days come back when we see ...the old grist mill run by water power, ...where the cornmeal is ground.

One of the important growing de...partments of the farm is the piggery. ...The hogs are of the English Tamworth ...breed, the bacon hog. Some 200 pigs ...are housed here and have their graz...ing ground in a wood furnishing the ...much-loved acorns. Last winter 100 ...pigs were killed and dressed. Old ne...gro men and women come to the ..."dressing" and the scene is that of an ...outdoor fete day.

The curing and trying-out house, ...with its huge stone fireplaces and big ...kettles, is presided over by the ne...gro mammies who understand this ...branch of the industry, and when all ...is done the rows upon rows of Oak ...Ridge hams and bacon hanging from ...the big rafters form an interesting ...sight.

The poultry plant, with its 3,000 ...White Leghorns, is a practical affair. ...It is a working plant, with an average ...of 300,000 eggs shipped in each season. ...Lately have been added 150 head of ...Dorset sheep and a sanitary barn with ...all modern equipment is under con...struction. The 100 beef cattle are an ...important feature of the farm, and ...the butcher showed with pride the ...cold-storage room, where he awaits ...his customers.

Mr. Ryan is a landlord who takes a ...personal interest in his place, and the ...air of energy and enthusiasm has ...quickened the sleepy region and made ...it a wide-awake settlement, bring... ...into the locality many new people ...furnishing employment to those ...already there, while it has not detract... ...from the romantic interest of the ...region. It is the boast of the region ...that within 20 miles of Charlottesville, ...the university town, which is 30 miles ...from Oak Ridge, have lived more dis...tinguished Americans than within any ...equal radius elsewhere.—N. BARNES FREED.

Verdict Returned After Thirty Minutes Deliberation.

Meherrin, Va., Jan. 24.—The case of O. O. Barnes, charged with the murder of Llewellyn Newcomb in October last, was given to the jury Tuesday morning without argument and a verdict of not guilty was returned after being out for about thirty minutes.

It became evident at the conclusion of testimony, both for the prosecution and defense, that the defense had established to the satisfaction of the hearers that Mr. Barnes acted in self-defense, and the verdict was not a surprise as returned.

It was agreed by counsel that no arguments be made by either side, and the instructions were prepared and accepted by the court this morning, and the case given the jury earlier than expected on Tuesday.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

With the Arlington wireless station and the Scout cruiser Salem, the Navy Department is about t attempt a 3,000 mile wireless conversation. The House Naval committee was informed today that the department is fitting out the Salem at Philadelphia with a powerful radio apparatus and plans to send her to a point somewhere off the coast of Spain to ascertain is she can "pick up" messages sent by the wireless station here. The Arlington station has a theoratical sending range of 3,000 miles, and the Navy Department wants to ascertain if this is a practical "talking distance." The conversational experiments will extend over about two weeks, according to plans.

President-elect Wilson's statement that he would be "perfectly content" if there were no inaugural reception on March 4 was taken here today as indicating the abandonment of all plans for any social function in connection with the new executive's induction into office. Senator Martine, of New Jersey, who has had a resolution ready for introduction for several days, granting use of Capitol building for public reception to Wilson, admitted today that he was in doubt whether to press it. Members of the citizens' inaugural committee said they thought Governor Wilson's expression ended the matter.

"President-elect Wilson has his mind made up, in my opinion, upon many of the vital questions of legislation was the statement today of Pepresentative Kent, the California Progressive upon his return from Trenton. "Mr. Wilson appears to have studied many progressive movement in which I am interested and has reached a definite opinion. Apparently he has well defined plans in the way of legislation. The Progresives of the House and of the Senate, I think, will aid him." Kent said Wilson seemed highly pleased and gratified over the promises of support for his administration by the House Progressives.

ACCUSED OF RAISING CHECK.

H. B. Wilson Arrested in Danville Charged With Forgery.

Danville, Va., Jan. 24.—Following an investigation made durlng the past few days by plainclothesmen, H. B. Wilson, a farmer of Hinesville, was late Tuesday night arrested and placed jail charged with forgery. It is charged by the police that Wilson, who last week received a check for $116.67 for a load of tobacco raised the amount $100 himself and succeeded in getting another man to cash it for him at a local barroom.

Wilson claims that he los tthe check while coming to Danville with another load of tobacco, and that it was recovered on the road by some unknown person who raised it and cashed it before Wilson was aware of his loss. Detectives went to Hinesville Tuesday, found $87 secreted in a trunk and learned of other suspicious money transactions. Wilson's wife denied his having any money at all,while Wilson himself came to Danville by a circuitous road while the officers were on the way to Hinesville. He will be given an early hearing in the Mayor's Court.

Tillman Denounces Blease.

On Tuesday, his inauguration day, beginning his second term as Governor, Cole L. Blease was attacked in a message from Senator Benjamin R. Tillman, read before the General Assembly of South Carolina as a "low type of man, who does not realize and cannot conceive how any one else can be honorable, clean and above board.'

Replying to charges of hypocrisy, jealousy and senility, made against him recently by Governor Blease, the venerable senator called into play all the fury and power of invective which in his younger days won for him the sobriquet of "Pitchfork Ben," and denounced the executive in unmeasured terms. Here is how he characterized Mr. Blease:

"Catalina among the Romans, and Aaron Burr among the Americans, are the only other man I have ever read of who were equal to Blease in bamboozling the people. He has persuaded thousands of good South Carolinians, honest clean, patriotic citizens, into believing that he is their best friend and that Tillman's mantel has fallen on his shoulders. He is a past master in the ait of demagogy. He knows full well that when the angry passions of the masses are aroused, they lose their reason.

"He desires to come to the Senate, as he boasted he would do at Richmond, in December last, and feels it obligatory on him to aggravate conditions in South Carolina as much as possible. Whether this is the right way to electioneer or not will be shown by the results of the next senatorial primary."

MINISTER SPEAKS OF "STARVE-TO-DEATH" SALARIES.

"In spite of the fact that it is a decidedly expensive thing to educate a man for the ministry, the average clergyman, particularly if he has a charge in the country, receives far less money for his labor than the skilled mechanic," said Rev. Dr. Herbert Parrish, rector of St. Luke's Protestant Episcopal Church, Baltimore, last night.

"Dr. Parrish had just returned from New York, where he delivered an address last Tuesday night at the annual banquet of the alumni association of the General Theological Seminary of that city, of which he is a graduate. "The Future of The Church," was his subject.

He told his colleagues that "the second order of clergy is between the bishops and the laity—the 'devil and the deep sea.' He said that while Theological seminaries were prone to give up wholesale the degree of "S. T. D.," the initials signifying "doctor of sacred theology," in the minds of some persons stood for "starve to death." For, he continued, "the average salary of Episcopal clergymen in the country was $700 a year, while those of other denominations received even less."

Rev. Dr. Parrish and others in the ministry can console themselves by calling to mind the fact that they are in good company. Dr. Adam Clarke tells of having to sleep in his clothes for fear of freezing to death while he was preparing himself for the ministry and often suffered from hunger. The first charge was at starvation wages.

WAR CLOUD IS DARK AS EVER.

The silver lining of the Balkan cloud which caused a buoyancy in the European market yesterday has suddenly disappeared and the dogs of war are again snapping their teeth. Nazim Pasha, former war minister of Turkey and commander of the Moslem forces, was shot to death during a demonstration in Constantinople last night against the action of the government in submitting to the loss of the City of Adrianople. The Young Turks are said to have determined to continue the war until the bitter end. It is now generally believed that the complete dismemberment of the Ottoman Empire is inevitable.

WAILS OF THE RICH AND POOR.

Edith B. McDonald, who has been granted $400 a month alimony by Supreme Court Justice Gavenan in New York, complains that she will have to cut her living expenses to meet this meagre income. James P. McDonald, the uncrowned king of Hayti, heads mining and railroad enterprises on the island aggregating $20,000,000 in capitalization. He and his wife occupied separate apartments at the Hotel Bellecluire until November, 1911, when Mrs. McDonald sued for a legal separation, charging abandonment because the railroad builder refused to cross the hallway and live in the same apartment.

A telegram from London in yesterday's Gazette gave the wails of certain women who are clamoring for franchise. One victim of penury alleged she toiled six days out of the seven for seventy-five cents. Out of this small pittance she was compelled to support her husband who is housebound by tuberculosis.

TO TAKE APPEAL.

dria. One was to take an immediate appeal and the other was to wait three years and file a new suit. He thought that the first course was the best. In his judgment the case presented by the City of Alexandria in favor of annexation was one of the strongest ever before presented.

Commonwealth Attorney Fisher stated that his opinion was the same as that made by Mr. Johnson.

Following the statement of the attorneys Councilman Howard W. Smith, chairman of the joint committee on general laws and finance which had the annexation case in charge made a motion that the corporation attorney and his assistant counsel apply to the State Court of Appeals for a writ of error in the case.

The resolution was adopted and then taken up and passed separately by both branches of council, the joint session dissolving after Mr. Johnson spoke.

In the separate meetings of the two boards the upper board passed the recommendation of the committee on the whole without debate and by a unanimous vote in Common Council opposition was made by Councilman Brockett who in a lengthy speech principally addressed to the spectators went over the principal arguments against annexation. Mr. Brockett was one of the principal witnesses against the city during the hearing before Judge Gordon. On the final vote the recommendation was passed by a vote of 12 to 2, the two votes against taking the appeal being Mr. Brockett and Mr. Lambert.

Mr. Birrell introduced a resolution appropriating $1,200 to pay the expenses of an appeal, which was referred to the committee on general laws and finance.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

All the aldermen except Mr. Brill were present at the called meeting last night.

Shortly after the Board had been called to order an invitation was received from the Common Council asking the Board to meet that body in joint session for the purpose of hearing the report of the counsel for the city in the suit recently brought in the Circuit Court for Alexandria County against the Boards of Supervisors of Alexandria and Fairfax counties for the annexation by the city of certain territory binding upon the latter.

Mr. Ballenger moved that the invitation be accepted and motion having been adopted, the Aldermen proceeded to the chamber of the lower board.

After their return a resolution directing the City Attorney and associate counsel to enter an appeal from the decision of Judge Gordon to the Supreme Court of Appeals, adopted by the Common Council, was received from that board and their action concurred in by a unanimous vote.

A resolution appropriating $1,200 or as much thereof as may be necessary, to prosecute the appeal, also adopted by the Common Council, was received and the action of that Board in referring it to the joint committees on Finance and General Laws was concurred in by a unanimous vote.

The board later adjourned.

Illegal Sale of Stamps.

Illegal trafficking the country over in stolen postage stamps, aggregating several millions of dollars annually has just been disclosed by postoffice inspectors, whose investigations were reported yesterday to Postmaster-General Hitchcock. They involved so-called stamp brokers and confidential employes of large business concerns throughout the United States.

Through confessions secured by the inspectors from some of the brokers whose operations were investigated it was learned that stamps of all classes and denominations stolen by burglars from postoffices and embezzled by employes from great business houses and manufacturing establishments were purchased and resold by the brokers at prices far below their face value.

The postal laws make it a crime, punishable by imprisonment, to sell any stamp issued b ythe government for less than its face value. Investigations disclosed the fact that in addition to selling the stamps for less than a price they could have been purchased for from the government, the brokers knew that the stamps were stolen when they bought them. Inquiries showed that brokers, in some instances, entered into a conspiracy with employes of business houses to buy at prices agreed upon all the stamps the clerks could steal from their employers.

THE TEST THAT TELLS.

Is The Test of Time. Many Alexandria People Have Made This Tet.

Years ago this Alexandria citizen told in a public statement the benefit derived from Doan's Kidney Pills.

The statement is now confirmed—the testimony complete. Instances like this are numerous. They doubly prove the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills. Can any Alexandria reader demand more convincing proof? It's Alexandria testimony—it may be investigated.

Mrs. Anine Scott, 110 Prince street, Alexandria, Va., says: "I am the same strong friend to Doan's Kidney Pills today, as I was in 1910 when I publicly told of the cure they had made for me. This cure has been lasting, but I occasionally use Doan's Kidney Pills as a preventive. I had pains in my back and I could not rest well. In the morning I always felt tired and worn out, and I also had dizzy spells. Doan's Kidney Pills did such good world that it is a pleasure to recommend them to other kidney sufferers."

Chickens are about the same in price as last week, fresh dressed turkies are on the market bringing 28 cents per pound.

BRIDGE AND BABIES.

John Drew, the matinee idol, who has lived long and seen much of life, moralizes on the subject of women, bridge and babies. In an interview in Pittsburg he said:

"Women must give up either bridge or babies. The two are incompatible together. Bridge certainly is a cause of race suicide. And it has become so serious that it can't be ignored any longer. In England the bridge craze is actually hurting the business of the theatres. There are many people who would rather play bridge than eat. So it takes no great stretch of the imagination to think of women preferring bridge to babies. For you know babies take time and attention and a women cannot devote her time to bridge playing and still perform her maternal duties.

Some women may rise up and inquire what right Drew, bein ga mere man, has to express opinion upon this subject. Bridge and babies may be incompatible, but bridge is by no means the only thing that tends to race suicide. Luxurious living, the keen pursuit of pleasure, the constant effort o maintain appearance, and all of the exhausting features of complex social life, tend to make the maintenance of the old-fashioned home more difficult. In this American people are no wise different from every other people of the world and of history. Increasing luxury means a constant increasing avoidance of the sturdy home that make for the strength and maintenance of the race.—Wheeling Register.

Crashing Motherhod.

Privations resulting from long hours and small wages for women workers in the garment industry are "crushing the future motherhood of the country," declared Theodore Roosevelt after his Tuesday night's visit among the kimona and wrapper making strikers. Most of he girls in this branch of the indutsry are not more than 15 years old. Roosevelt visited them at the request of a settlement worker, who ushered him into a hall crowded with girls of all tongues. They gathered about him eagerly a soon as they had been assured of his friendliness and told their stories through interpreters. Roosevelt had a characteristically emphatic expression of anger and sympathy as each case was revealed to him. "This is crushing the future motherhood of the country," he said, finally. "It must be stopped. It is too horrible for words." Roosevelt was so impressed with conditions that he will make further investigations today.

Blown Through Window.

Ottemus Harris, the ten-year-old boy, who was blown through the window Sunday night by an explosion of a can of powder, died Tuesday night at Lncoln Hospital, Durham, N. C., where he had been since the time of the explosion in a serious condition. The boy was badly burned about the face and head, also a part of his body was burned, and there had been no hopes entertained for his recovery.

The explosion occurred Sunday evening at the home of Lee Harris, father of Ottemus, on Bailey's row in the coal chute section. Harris is building a new house near the one he had been occupying and was preparing to dig a well. To aid in the work of sinking the well, Harris had secured a can of blasting powder which he stored away in his home for future use. A short time ago he was injured at the Duke factory and was carried to Loncoln hospital for treatment, and Sunday evening his wife decided to visit him at the hospital and left Ottemus and two other boys at home.

During the evening the boys began playing around the can of powder, and Ottemus was showing his playmates how close he could hold a match to the explosive. Suddenly there was a blinding flash followed by a loud report and crashing of timber and shattering of glass. The Harris boy was hurled through a window and was found in a serious condition, being fatally burned about the head. The other two boys were painfully hurt, but the injuries were not of consequence sufficient for hospital treatment.

The building, a four-room cottage, was wrecked by the explosion. One end was blown out, the flue demolished, door torn from the hinges, windows broken and other evidences of the terrific force of the explosion were seen on every hand.

The alumnae of St. Mary's Academy will give a Progressive Euchre at the Lyceum Hall on Thursday, January 30th, at 8 o'clock. Tickets are for sale by members of the Alumnae and at Edgar Warfield's drug store.

DO NOT WANT BRYAN.

North Carolina Senators do Not Want to Hear Him.

Raleigh, N. C. Jan. 24.—The first "sensation" of the newly-assembled legislature of North Carolina developed Tuesday evening when the Senate stubbornly resisted and killed the house resolution (presented by Justive of Guilford ,a former speaker of the house) calling for the creation of a special joint committee authorized to invite William Jennings Bryan and Senator La Follette and President-elect Wilson to address the legislators on the subject of the initistive and referendum. It developed a startling situation at times, and many surprises. The final vote on the resolution (after two hours of the warmest kind of debate between Bryan and anti-Bryan Democrats, there are only three Republican senators of the total of fifty, and 1 of them voted with the Bryanites) was 27 against to 23 for it—and by that startling vote the invitation (which was designed by its author and exploited by other politicians of the same mind in the interest of the Nebraskan) to Mr. Bryan was relegated to the legislative morgue, with no prospect of an attempt to breathe life into it again.

But the brief existence it enjoyed was of the liveliest sort, and, while it drew the fire of the champions of Senator Simmons, who do not like the attitude Mr. Bryan has assumed toward the senior senator from North Carolina, and the other element who are anti-Bryan, per se, it did not fail to receive the encomiums which the Bryanites deemed proper to pay it.

Before the fate of the bill was known one amendment was adopted adding the name of Oscar Underwood to the trio already named.

Another amendment adding the name of ex-Senator Joseph W. Bailey, of Texas, was defeated, but it received the votes of thirteen of the forty-seven Democratic senators.

Another amendment adding the names of Wm. R. Hearst, and Culberson, of Texas, was defeated.

Steamed Oysters at Rammel's Cafe.

Gumbo Soup.

Take a couple of nice small chickens, divide them as for fricassee; dredge with flour, brown in frying pan, using butter instead of lard; then let them boil very gently two hours; salt and pepper to suit taste, add strained juice from a quart of oysters, put in two slices of fat boiled ham; let this boil for one-quarter hour before putting in the boiled oysters; put in a few leaves of some pleasant herb, then simmer for ten minutes.

Finnan Haddie and Cream.

One pound smoked finnan haddie, remove bone and skin, then cut up very fine. One-half pint of milk, one-half pint of sweet corn, one-half teaspoonful of salt, one-eighth spoonful of pepper. Mix all this with pieces of fish and boil for ten minutes. This makes enough for three.

Human Hair as Darning Thread.

When darning a rent in woolen goods and it is impossible to ravel out the goods for thread, try using long strands of your own hair. The loose weave of the wool loses the hair in its meshes and so the darn becomes invisible.

CLARK GRIFFITH COMING.

Will be Guest of the Cardinal Athletic Club Next Wednesday.

Manager Clark Griffith, of the Washington Baseball team has accepted an invitation to be a guest at the banquet of the Cardinal Athletic Club at the Hotel Rommel on next Wednesday night. Manager Griffith has written the following lettter to Sylvester A. Breen, president of the Cardinals:

"Dear Sir:—Received your kind invitation asking me to be present at your banquet on Wednesday, 29. I wish to state I will be glad to accept this invitatoin and will be on hand. I will also be glad to meet the boys of your club.

Thanking you, I am

"Yours very truly,

(Signed) CLARK GRIFFITH."

A limited number of tickets have been issued to give Mr. Griffith's Alexandria friends a chance to attend this banquet. Tickets can be obtained from members of the Cardinals for seventy-five cents.

Speaking of Manager Clark Griffith's visit to Alexandria the Washington Herald says:

"The Washington baseball club boasts of no warmer friends and loyal fans than the citizens of that flourishing little city across the Potomac River—Alexandria.

"The Alexandria boys want to know Manager Griffith better, and are to be afforded this opportunity next Wednesday night, as the Old Fox has accepted an invitation from President Sylvester A. Breen, of the Cardinal Athletic Club, to attend a banquet at the Hotel Rammel. The spread is in Mr. Griffith's honor, and is sure to be a big affair, as Mr. Breen never does things by halves.

"Alexandrians have always made the cause of the Washington baseball club their own. They, too, have been generous in their patronage. The Cardinal Athletic Club is a permanent institution over in the Virginia city Its baseball, basketball, and football teams rank wth the best of their class in Washington.

"Manager Griffith has a pleasant evenng in store for hmself next Wednesday."

Consumptives Helped by Tuberculosis Medicine

It is folly to believe that Consumption differs from every other disease in not requiring the use of any medicine for its treatment. For a number of years an enormous mass of voluntary and thankful testimonials from persons who consider that they owe their lives to Eckman's Alterative, a medicine for Tuberculosis, has been accumulating. Surely plenty of time to demonstrate its lasting value. You can write to any of them. Here is one:

5323 Girard Ave., Phila., Pa.

"Gentlemen: In the winter of 1903 I had an attack of Grippe, followed by Pneumonia and later by Consumption. I grew steadily worse. In the winter of 1904 I had coughs, night sweats, fever and raised quantities of awful-looking stuff and later I had many hemorrhages; at one time three in three successive days. Milk and eggs became so distasteful I could keep nothing down. Three physicians treated me. I was ordered to the mountains, but did not go. Eckman's Alterative was recommended by a friend. After taking a small quantity, I had the first quiet night's sleep for weeks. My improvement was marked from the first. I gained strength and weight and appetite. I never had another hemorrhage and my cough gradually lessened until entirely gone. I am perfectly well. Everything I say here can be verified by my family and friends." (Sworn affidavit) ANNE F. LOUGHRAN.

Eckman's Alterative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever; Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for more evidence. For sale by all leading druggists

IN MEMORIAM.

CHESHIRE.—In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother, MARY V. CHESHIRE, who departed this life 14 years ago today, January, 24, 1899.

Fourteen years ago her summons came,
We do not know just why
The Lord should take her from us
Just why she had to die.

She need not know how much she's missed,
How sad has been our lot;
But Lord, we pray, let mother know
That her we've not forgot.
